

Financial Overview

Over the years

Over the past four years, PSS has doubled its annual operating budget with most of this increase being an investment in staff. This increased investment expands our capacity and results in additional programming and a bigger impact in achieving our mandate.

Though a bigger budget needs to be financially supported and comes with greater financial risks, over the past two years PSS has met this financial challenge through increased grants and donations, and has operated with small surpluses.

